

Rhode Island's Hope Award 2008 Nomination Form

Rhode Island's Hope Award is awarded annually to individuals who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to helping others during or after an emergency situation or tragic event. Nominations for the 2008 Rhode Island's Hope Award are being accepted for those individuals who played such roles during such an incident.

There are two categories for the Rhode Island's Hope Award.

- Outstanding Responder in a Crisis Situation. Recognizing a person who responded selflessly to help others during an extraordinary event. Nominees may include a Good Samaritan or any first responder such as police, fire, rescue, EMT personnel; or medical professionals such as doctors, nurses, crisis management volunteers.
- Outstanding Support Toward Recovery. Recognizing a person who provided outstanding support to victims of the Station Night Club fire. Nominees may include any individual who provided assistance; professional and non-professional counselors or spiritual counselors; or physical and occupational therapists.

Please type or print below (please complete your information in the event that the Committee needs to contact you, and as much information as you know about the nominee).
